Sunday School

How the time has flown! We are in December and in the home stretch for the first semester. Per our calendar, we have a Gold Sunday school day on December 15th. This time will give teachers the opportunity to help prep the students for the upcoming exams. Monday, December 16th, is a Blue day, and teachers will continue exam preparation on that day.

Work does continue during exam week and students and supervisors will work together to plan their shifts with the different blocks/times. The exams and school schedules are available on FACTS Family Portal under the Resource Document tab.
